

Reconstructing Carnap Webinar Series

The “Reconstructing Carnap” webinar series examines Rudolf Carnap’s philosophy in light of contemporary debates in epistemology, logical empiricism, and analytic metaphysics.

Spring 2025

JANUARY 22, 2025

Christian Damböck University of Vienna

“Carnap in Chicago. The Road to Empiricism, Semantics, and Ontology”

FEBRUARY 19, 2025

Lydia Patton Virginia Tech

“Carnap and the Psychological Subject”

MARCH 5, 2025

Erich Reck University of California, Riverside

“Carnapian Explication: Probing its Criteria of Adequacy”

MARCH 20, 2025

Georg Schiemer University of Vienna

“From Hilbert’s Program to Carnap’s Wissenschaftslogik”

APRIL 9, 2025

Richard Creath Arizona State University

“From the Project of the Aufbau to Tolerance”

MAY 21, 2025

Thomas Uebel University of Manchester

Carnap on Carnap: Was He Completely Confused When He Remembered the Aufbau in the ’50s?

JUNE 11, 2025

Alan Richardson University of British Columbia

“Objectivity Problems: The Aufbau and the End of Epistemology”

Organizers

Caterina Del Sordo
University of Vienna

Luca Oliva
University of Houston

Silvano Zipoli Caiani
University of Florence

Webinar hours

CET 4:30 - 6:30 pm
EST 10:30 - 12:30

Link

meet.google.com/uaq-jqpf-mwr

Contacts

For further information, contact Dr. Caterina Del Sordo at caterina.delsordo@ehu.eus